$800/cohort*

@NICOLEOBRIENCOACHING

What To Expect

- Small, curated cohorts of 5-7 experienced coaches committed to sharpening their edge + accelerating growth
- A co-created structure where participants shape the focus, ensuring relevance and real-world impact
- Each meeting blends strategy, real-time feedback, peer coaching, and identity work for insights you can act on immediately.
- Quarterly sessions that fuel clarity, courage, and next-level transformation.

Big Picture

The difference between moving forward and truly leveling up often comes down to the room you're in.

You can't create exponential growth in isolation — it requires trusted peers who will push you, champion you, and hold you accountable.

The Mastermind Series is limited in size for a reason: the intimacy, exclusivity, and quality of exchange are what make it transformative.

WHO THIS IS FOR

Coaches who are:

- already established in their craft but ready to elevate their practice.
- craving more than connection — seeking real challenge, candid conversations, and true accountability from peers.
- motivated to contribute fully, accelerate growth and step into a trusted space that stretches them.

WHY THIS? WHY NOW?

- With the coaching landscape shifting rapidly, now is the time to invest in a space that offers both safety and stretch — and calls you to show up with courage.
- If you're ready to stop building alone and start accelerating alongside peers who will challenge and inspire you, this is your moment.
